2024-1012671

Cumberland Integrated Street Crime Enforcement Unit executed two search warrants with assistance of the RCMP Emergency Response Team and Cumberland District RCMP for 2 separate addresses in the Oxford area. As a result, 8 persons were arrested with 2 of those persons being charged. One person was remanded into custody and the other released on conditions. The investigation resulted in over 250 charges being laid. The warrants resulted in the seizure of more than 40 firearms, quantities of illicit drugs, illegal tobacco and the recovery of property obtained by crime totaling in excess of $237 000.00. The investigation is ongoing and the matter is before the courts.

2024-1075328

RCMP member observed a black Chevrolet fishtailing out of the Irving parking lot and then driving at high rates of speed Northbound on main street. Police followed the truck and observed it swerving in the lane and driving in the middle of the road. The driver then suddenly reduced speed and pulled onto the shoulder. Once pulled over, the driver immediately exited the vehicle and walked back towards the police cruiser, disregarding commands by RCMP member, saying "you got me." The driver was arrested for impaired operation, and charged under the Motor Vehicle Act for driving while license suspended. The vehicle was searched and open alcohol was located and seized. The driver was transported for breath samples and charged for operation over 80mg% (alcohol). The matter is before the courts.

2024-1122738

While conducting a checkstop, a driver failed to produce his driver's license and was directed to pull over. The male provided a false name several times and as a result was arrested for Obstruction of a Police officer. Police observed indices of drug use, and a subsequent search resulted in a small amount of crack cocaine being located. The male continued to provide false names until he was identified by another RCMP member. The investigation revealed the individual was on a Conditional Sentence Order and subject to House Arrest. The male was charged with 4 counts of Fail to Comply, 2 counts of Impaired, and one count each of Identity Fraud and Obstruction of Police officer. The matter is currently before the courts.

2024-1279474

911 disturbance – complainant reported an out of control male who security are trying to remove. Shouting could be heard in the background and the report stated all parties were intoxicated by alcohol. RCMP members attended but the subject of complaint had departed with his mother. The complainant declined to lay charges. Members stayed in attendance until people left the party, no more issues. No further investigation needed.

2024-1441800

Complainant reported an ATV with no plate was stolen from his yard sometime in the past few hours. The vehicle was rolled out of the yard with the keys on the bike. The property has no surveillance cameras. Members attended to find the complainant had departed his residence and was not home. Member called the complainant with no answer. Member attended a second time and was still unsuccessful so a card was left behind. Further follow up with the complainant resulted in no new information, and the complainant declined to provide a statement. The VIN number was obtained and the vehicle was added to CPIC. The file is still under investigation.
