A female attended Oxford Detachment to report a person from Snap Chat friended her and started messaging her. He sent her pictures from her account that showed her nude and demanding she perform sex acts online or he would send the pictures to all of her contacts but if she complied he would delete the intimate images. The complainant confirmed that the pictures had been on her phone and most had been sent out to various persons. The female also advised that an Instagram account was made in her name and some pictures were sent to her contacts. The Complainant had previously filed a complaint with DOJ Civilian Cyber Crime. The matter is still under Investigation.

2024-704089

Received a complaint of Fraud. Complainant reported that a person held a Facebook auction to benefit a family, raising $7000, however failed to provide said funds to the beneficiaries. Statement and financial documentation obtained from the complainant. The matter is still under Investigation.

911 impaired driver in progress - Complainant working at Irving reports a known male doing donuts and burnouts in the parking lot. The male smelled of alcohol and was seen going north on Main street. A second call was received for the same person from another Complainant reporting the male was impaired and driving black truck. The truck was reported on Water Street and was located on Foundry Street. The male was arrested and breath samples of 180 mgs and 170 mgs were obtained; he was charged with Operation while Impaired and Operation over 80 mgs. The male was released with an Appearance Notice to attend court in June. Additionally the male was issued 2 fines for Motor Vehicle Act violations. The matter is before the court.

2024-874817

Manager of JL BREAUX Crane rentals reported one of his work trailers was stolen from Oxford Frozen Foods overnight. The trailer was a flat deck with New Brunswick plates. Member was sent photos of the video surveillance which showed a white Ford F150 with a male wearing a green sweater with the word VANS on it. Complainant did not provide a statement as he could not add anything more than what the video would add. The complainant received his trailer back after J DIV RCMP recovered it in New Brunswick and stated that since he now had his trailer back he did not want to pursue with the file.
