

Proclamation

World Autism Acceptance Month

April 4th, 2022

WHEREAS, it is estimated that 1 in 66 people across the country are on the autism spectrum, and 1 in 34 people—approximately 30,000 individuals— in Nova Scotia are on the autism spectrum; and

WHEREAS, many dedicated Autistic individuals/people with autism, parents, teachers, researchers, and professionals, including those at Autism Nova Scotia and other community-based organizations, work tirelessly throughout our province to make the communities where we live accessible and inclusive for Autistics/individuals with autism, and their loved ones; and

WHEREAS, with 11 locations throughout the province and with the support of the autism community, Autism Nova Scotia builds understanding, acceptance, and inclusion for Autistics/individuals on the autism spectrum and their families through leadership, advocacy, education, training, and programming across the lifespan; and

WHEREAS, this month of April marks Autism Acceptance Month, and Saturday, April 2nd, marked World Autism Acceptance Day, when people across the globe came together as a community to celebrate autism and promote acceptance and inclusion.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, I, Mayor Henley, on behalf of the Oxford Town Council, do hereby proclaim April 2022 as Autism Acceptance Month throughout the Town of Oxford and encourage all of our citizens to recognize the Autistic individuals/people with autism, family members, caregivers, educators, and other professionals who strive to make Nova Scotia an inclusive and accessible place for us all to call home.

Dated at Oxford, Nova Scotia
this 4th day of April 2022
