

PROCLAMATION
Indigenous Survivors Day
June 30, 2026

WHEREAS Indigenous Peoples, including First Nations, Inuit, and Métis, have faced historical and ongoing trauma through colonial policies, such as the Sixties Scoop, Millennium Scoop, birth alerts, and other practices that disrupted families and communities;

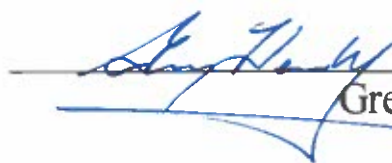

WHEREAS Indigenous Survivors Day recognizes the strength and courage of those who have endured these injustices and honors the resilience, cultural heritage, and contributions of Indigenous Peoples;

WHEREAS the Town of Oxford is committed to advancing reconciliation, inclusivity, and respect for all communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and Council of the Town of Oxford do hereby proclaim June 30, 2026, as Indigenous Survivors Day in Oxford, Nova Scotia.

Dated at Oxford, Nova Scotia

June 30, 2026

Greg Henley, Mayor
Town of Oxford